Serpent

You are sneaky. You never tell a flat lie, you twist what God said.

Gray is your cue. When you hear it, read the next line in big print.

NARRATOR Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman,

YOU Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

NARRATOR And the serpent said unto the woman,

YOU Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.
